Paul represents entities and individuals in complex commercial litigation and real estate litigation matters in various federal and state courts. A trial lawyer of first chair experience in complex civil litigation, Paul has a strong record of service to the firm's clients.

Paul served a judicial clerkship with United States District Court Judge Walter E. Black before joining the firm. Prior to entering law school, he served in the United States Peace Corps teaching mathematics and English to students in Malawi, Africa. Paul was named to the Best Lawyers in America list for 2020, and has been recognized by Maryland Super Lawyers since 2011. He is a ranked lawyer in the Chambers USA 2024 guide in Litigation, and in 2017, Paul received the "Leadership in Law" award from The Daily Record.
