Sarah is a paralegal in the Renewable Energy Practice Group, supporting attorneys and clients in finance, tax credit, development, and related matters. Sarah's strong customer service and organizational skills are instrumental in helping complete client projects and transactions.

Prior to joining Gallagher, Sarah worked as a legal assistant for a local firm, maintaining client files and providing additional support to attorneys.

She graduated from the University of Baltimore with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Marketing in 2018 and a Master of Business Administration in Marketing in 2020.

Beyond Gallagher

Sarah is a travel enthusiast and has a goal to visit 50 states before the age of 50. She also enjoys houseplants and camping, and she and her husband love spending time with their two dogs, Quill and Buddy.
